

Modj Pardaz Basir join to the Park

Following conclusion of the membership contract made On Monday 08.09.2008, Modj Pardaz Basir Engineering CO. Realized as a PTP Technological tenant Company. The company is established in 2006 and its activity focused on research on hardware processors and radar systems.

WED, 8 October 2008

Sharif University of Technology (SUT) young elites visit to the park

A group of SUT young elites visited Pardis Technology Park and made informed about the park's activities and progression.

During the visit, their questions on the specifications and functions of technology parks were being answered.

Then, they visited the tunnel for utility installations, Pars Online Co. Research centre and, the permanent exhibition for hi-tech products.

WED, 8 October 2008

PTP attendance to the SUT Festival of Entrepreneurship

During this 3 day festival, which started in 10.10.08 and ended on 12.10.08, an exhibition was on about the attempts and attainments made by the university graduates. At side of the exhibition, there were different training workshops at various subjects related to entrepreneurship.

In addition to running an informative stand in the festival, Pardis Technology Park represented a workshop on "technology Parks and their role in entrepreneurship" which was welcomed by the attendants.

It worth to mention that, the festival was hold mainly by the endeavours of the Society of SUT Graduates.

MON, 13 October 2008

PTP presence in Iran Nanotechnology Exhibition

The first Nanotechnology Exhibition of Iran held in Hijab Amphitheatre, from 13th to 15th of October 2008. At the exhibition, where there were companies and research institutes active in nanotechnology, Pardis Technology Park introduced the activities carried out at this arena amongst which, holding international conference on nanotechnology and, supporting the companies and research institutes in this field, could be mentioned as the most dominant items.

WED, 15 October 2008

Syria's Minister of Industry visit to the park

On Tuesday, 28th October, Dr. Foad Issa Jouni, the Minister of Industry of Syria, along with the Ambassador of that country in Iran and, some officials from that ministry, visited Pardis Technology Park. In this 2 hour visit, firstly, a report made on the activities run in the park and then, the possible methods of cooperation between the park and the Arabic Republic of Syria discussed. The Minister expressed his fascination about such an advanced researching centre in Iran and, realized the PTP as an appropriate model for establishing a similar park in Syria.

In continuation, he visited the hi-tech products exhibition. He showed willingness for strengthening the relation between two countries in the field of science and technology.

TUE, 28 October 2008

For the very first time in Iran, Insurance provided for Venture Capitals in the field of advanced technologies

For the first time in Iran, the venture capital projects in advanced technologies will be insured. According to an MOU concluded on cooperation between the PTP and Iran Insurance Company, the insurance company undertook the warranty and risk assessment for investment projects in advanced technology in Pardis Technology Park. In the framework of this MOU, services including insurance for engineering, employer, responsibilities and, other projects will be provided to the PTP tenant companies. According to the MOU, Iran Insurance Company Agency Office will be located in the .Park in near future

TUE, 28 October 2008

The Chancellor of Tehran University of Medical Sciences visit to the park

On Tuesday 4/11/08, Dr. Larijani, the Chancellor of Tehran University of Medical Sciences and, Dr. Fotuhi, the Research Vice Chancellor of that university, accompanied by Dr. Sarkar, the Secretary of the Iranian Nanotechnology Initiative, visited pardis Technology Park.

Throughout this visit, Mr. Safarinia, the president of the PTP, represented a report on the actions and measures executed in different sectors of the park. Subsequently, the potential prospects of cooperation between the PTP and the University were the subject of discussion. The areas of mutual agreement were; having cooperation for developing the virtual network of Iran Laboratories, utilizing each others' sources of scientific information and databanks and, make the presence of the university graduates in the park possible.

The tour ended with visiting the permanent exhibition of Hi-tech products.

THU, 4 November 2008

The Legal and International Deputy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs visited PTP

On Thursday 13th of November 2008, Dr. Mohammad Ali Hosseini, The Legal and International Deputy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs visited Pardis Technology Park. While introducing the activities carried out and in run in the park by Mr. Safarinia, the focus of discussion concentrated on the certain projects with international aspects.

Considering PTP special approach to developing international relations in economic and technologic areas and, introducing the technological abilities of the country to the world, the park had been arranged this visit in order to make benefit of all potential roots for achieving its mentioned goals. During this 2 hours long visit, Dr. Hosseini asserted about the Ministry readiness and willingness for assist and accompanying the park in establishing international relations, particularly with a focus on the countries with virgin capacities and potentials for economic and technologic exchanges with Iran.

At the end, the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs visited the PTP permanent exhibition for hi-tech products

THU, 13 November 2008

The Ambassador of Thailand visit to the park

On Thursday, 06/11/08, Mr. Suvit Sai, the ambassador of Thailand, along with the Trade Counsellor of this embassy, visited pardis technology park and, made informed .about the projects in progress at the park

Initially, Mr. Khaleghian, the PTP manager of International Relations, represented a report on the activities running in the park and, then ideas exchanged on the possible ways of .cooperation between two sides

.Lastly, they made a visit to the permanent exhibition for hi-tech products

THE, 6 November 2008

Iran Post Bank Managing Director visited PTP

Dr. Afzali, the managing director of Post Bank, accompanied by the Bank Board of Directors, visited the PTP on Thursday 20th November 2008. Through the tour, they informed about the projects running in the park and, also visited the permanent exhibition for hi-tech products.

THU, 20 November 2008

PTP visited by a group directors and experts from IR of Iran Broadcasting – Radio

In order to make more knowledge about Pardis Technology Park, on Monday 24th November 2008, a number of directors and research experts of Iran Radio visited the Park. The visit took 3 hours and the visitors made informed about the park future plans and projects. The important role of the science and technology parks in the progress of the country and, the media's responsibility for introducing them nationwide, was the point of consideration and emphasize.

MON, 24 November 2008

